1. CENTRAL SUPPLIER DATABASE (CSD)

The Central Supplier Database (CSD) is a single database that will serve as the source of all supplier information for organs of state. The supplier information will be verified with institutions such as the South African Revenue Service, Companies and Intellectual Property Commission, Department of Home Affairs etc. All suppliers will be required to complete required information on the CSD website and must ensure it is complete, accurate and comprehensive.

1.1 What do I need to register on the CSD?

Depending on the supplier type, the following would be amongst the required information:

- A valid cell-phone number to receive a One Time Pin (OTP);
- A valid email account;
- Supplier identification information e.g. identification number or company registration number or trust number, etc.;
- Industry classification information;
- Supplier contact information e.g. preferred contact name, email address, cell-phone number, telephone number etc.; (Note: Please ensure that you provide all relevant numbers where available i.e. telephone number (landline), cell-phone number, fax number, toll free number, website address. This is to enable Organ of State practitioners to reach you when intending to contact you for procurement purposes);
- Supplier address information e.g. country, province, municipality, city, suburb, ward and postal code;
- Bank account information if relevant to ensure future payments; Verification against the banks may take up to four (4) days, please complete this information in advance to prevent payment delays);
- Supplier tax information if relevant;
- Directors/Members information, e.g. name and identification number of directors, members etc.;
- Commodities the supplier can provide; (Note: commodities need to be captured accurately as they are used by Organ of State practitioners to search goods and services required by them. The delivery locations of commodities must be accurate to prevent you from not responding to request for quotations sent from practitioners in areas where you do not supply commodities); and
- Accreditations the supplier is associated with e.g. CIBD, SETA, SANAS etc. if relevant.

1.2 How do I register on the CSD?

You are required to follow a two stage, self-registration process:

Stage 1: Create yourself as a CSD user

- Register your basic information on: <https://secure.csd.gov.za/Account/Register>;
- Activate your account using the activate account link emailed to you; and
- Click on Request OTP and enter the OTP sent via sms.

Stage 2: Complete supplier details

- Log in on: <https://secure.csd.gov.za/Account/Login>;
- Click on Supplier Details followed by Add Supplier;
- Complete the identification tab; and
- Complete the other required information (industry classification, contacts, address, tax, directors/members, associations, commodities, notifications and B-BBEE).

Submit

- Click on the Overview tab to ensure there is no outstanding information; and
- Once all the information is complete, click Submit

1.3 How do I know I am successfully registered?

The registration is complete once the supplier information is assigned a Supplier number and a 36-digit Unique Registration Reference Number.

1.4 How do I obtain a registration report?

- Click on Report, followed by Registration;
- Enter your Supplier number and the Unique Registration Reference Number; and

2. WESTERN CAPE SUPPLIED DATABASE (WCSD)

This shared database serves as the registration base for all suppliers wishing to conduct business with both the City of Cape Town and Provincial Government of the Western Cape.

It is important to note that it is compulsory to be registered on the Central Supplier Database (CSD), as per section 1, in order to register on the WCSD. The Western Cape Supplier Evidence Bank (WCSEB) will utilise the National Treasury's CSD as the master database and serve as the central repository of governance documentation that will be used in the procurement process in order to give effect to the legislative requirements of the Western Cape Government (WCG).

2.1 What do I need to register on the WCSD/WCSEB?

Depending on the supplier type, the following would be amongst the required information:

- SEB Registration form;
- Annexure A (Commodity list)
- WCBD4 for Declaration of Interest;
- WCBD6.1 for Claiming points for BEE status;
- B-BBEE Exempted Micro Enterprise Affidavit General (Turnover is less than R10 million and there is profit sharing);
- B-BBEE Exempted Micro Enterprise Affidavit Specialized (Turnover is less than R10 million and there is no profit sharing);
- B-BBEE Qualifying Small Enterprise Affidavit General (Turnover is above R10 million but less than R50 million and there is profit sharing);
- B-BBEE Qualifying Small Enterprise Affidavit Specialized (Turnover is above R10 million but less than R50 million and there is no profit sharing);
- B-BBEE Exempted Micro Enterprise Affidavit for Construction sector (Turnover is less than R10 million and there is profit sharing);
- Security Officer's Board Certificate (applicable to security services only) (Certified copy);
- Construction Industry Development Board Certificate (CIDB) or I Tender website printout (Certified copy) - (applicable building or construction services); and
- Certified ID copy of the person submitting the forms;

Kindly note the following:

- Please make sure your BEE affidavit has the month and year on the space for financial year end, e.g. March 2020;
- A supplier may only have one B-BBEE document as detailed on e-i above, or a B-BBEE certificate obtained from a SANAS accredited agent or a CIPC affidavit;
- Please make sure all commissioned documents have force numbers of SAPS officials if your documents will be commissioned by constable; sergeant; or a warrant officer at SAPS;
- If a supplier scratches on a document, both the supplier and a commissioner must sign next to the parts of the document that was scratched, otherwise the document will not be accepted;
- Posted documents will not be accepted until further notice;
- Acceptance of your scanned documents is subject to completeness, correctness and quality of the scanned documents. For example, we will not accept documents with missing information or where the information on the document is not clear or cut; and
- Suppliers who have submitted soft copies and whose copies are accepted, are further advised to safeguard the physical copies that were sent to the WCSEB team for submission at a later stage. We will communicate the date of the submission in due course.
